AQA A Level

ABOUT THE COURSE

Why does inflation spike, how do global markets react to crises, why do people make irrational financial decisions?

A-Level Economics is far more than pounds and dollars, it is the ultimate user guide to how the modern world works. Combining the psychology of decision-making with the analytical power of global market dynamics, this course equips you with a sharp, strategic mindset that top universities and employers actively compete for.

- Microeconomics (The Science of Choice)

Dive into human behaviour and market dynamics.

- Macroeconomics (The Big picture)

Explore the economic forces driving inflation, unemployment, international trade, and economic growth.
